

To: OBrien, Wendy[OBrien.Wendy@epa.gov]
From: McClain-Vanderpool, Lisa
Sent: Mon 8/10/2015 7:37:27 PM
Subject: blurb

•Regions 6, 8 and 9 and ATSDR and state toxicologists continue to evaluate total and dissolved metals concentrations data as it comes in. In order to interpret the data, we need enough data to create and average over time due to the fluctuations that occur in the flowing river water. Once we have the average, we will be able to state which activities or uses of the water meet health standards.

Lisa McClain-Vanderpool

Public Affairs Specialist/Media Officer

Office of Communications and Public Involvement

US Environmental Protection Agency, Region 8

1595 Wynkoop Street

Denver, Colorado 80202

Office 303.312.6077

Cell 303.501.4027